

Speakers

Peace Camp February 1-3 2019. Steve Wiebe-Johnson

Steve Wiebe-Johnson has served with Mennonite Mission Network in Africa and with Africans for over 30 years. He is passionate about Africans leading their own churches, organizations and projects, and provides support and encouragement in the background. Steve is great at telling stories to illustrate a point, and has a real pastoral heart. He never shies away from difficult conversations or questions, so if you have a doozy of a question for him, don't hold back!

Junior High Retreat · February 8-10: Kent Miller

Kent is a husband, father, and grandfather doing his best to follow Jesus. He comes to us with a broad range of experience serving the church. He has been a Youth Pastor, Lead Pastor, worked for conference and Denominational Agencies, and currently is a Financial Advisor for Everence. He enjoys leading worship, song writing, reading, movies, golf, and spending time with his family!

Senior High Retreat · February 15-17: Stephen “Tig” Intagliata

Stephen “Tig” Intagliata is in his 13th year as Campus Pastor at Bluffton University. Most of his time is spent helping students connect with God in authentic ways, and encouraging them to discover their unique passions and gifts so they can share God's grace and love with others. Tig grew up in the Catholic church in southern California and discovered Mennonites through Mennonite Voluntary Service. Most of his adult life has been spent serving the Church as a pastor in places like San Antonio and Phoenix, and as a mission worker in Bolivia. Tig is married to Karen and they have three adult children, a grandson, a foster granddaughter, and a peek-a-poo named Binky. Tig and his family love to travel and experience the beauty (and food!) of other cultures and countries.

Music

Peace Camp · February 1-3 · Nathan Grieser

Nathan Grieser lives in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, with his wife Kate and daughters Ivy and Juniper. He currently serves as Director of The Shalom Project, an Anabaptist-founded voluntary service program. Besides writing and playing music, Nathan enjoys bicycle commuting, gardening, and woodworking. He is passionate about living simply and sustainably, connecting with people on the margins, and creatively participating in God's work of peace and restoration.

Junior High · February 8-10 · Abandoned

Abandoned started out as two friends with nothing better to do on a summer afternoon than play music on a beaten-down drum set and a 66-key Casio Keyboard. From there, the group has grown in size and more importantly, has grown to become a family of musicians who strive to use their gift to bring glory to the kingdom, and to help others worship while doing so.

Senior High Retreat · February 15-17 · 10 Talents

We started 10 talents because we love to see and use the power of music to affect people's lives. God has placed a strong desire in each of our hearts to use music to glorify Him through utilizing the abilities He has given us to reach the lost and encourage others to do the same. The name "10 talents" was derived off of the parable of the talents "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master'".
