Pastoral Leadership Team Weekend

November 13-15, 2015

Each fall, pastors, elders, leadership teams gather at Amigo Centre to be resourced and to resource each other. There is teaching, worship, and fellowship around the tables as we gather to support and be supported.

Soul Care

Pastoral Leadership Team weekend is a partnership of IN-MI Mennonite Conference and Amigo Centre.

Pastoral Leadership Team Weekend

Soul Care

As church leaders, do you find yourself feeling:

- Out of sync – overwhelmed, ineffective, scrambling to juggle all the responsibilities?
- Lonely – alienated from others and yourself, building walls to survive the pressures?
- In a rut – running on empty, teaching old ideas, facing the same internal battles?

Join us for a weekend, led by Gilberto Flores, as he explores ways to lead from a healthy soul:

- being God continuously converted by God as we engage in ministry,
- learning to pay attention and respond to the rhythms of the spirit's movements and,
- making loneliness a crucible for turning leadership isolation into authentic leadership community.

Some of us have found Ruth Haley Barton's book, Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership, to be a very useful resource. Her book is a good introduction to the theme Gilberto will be focusing on. – Dan Miller, IN-MI Conference Pastor

Who should attend? Pastors and elders and leadership teams, committee members, teachers, and others in leadership capacities within the congregation.

Gilberto Flores first began working with the Mennonite Church in Guatemala, eventually becoming president of the Guatemalan Mennonite Church. He also served as dean at Semilla, an Anabaptist seminary located in Guatemala City. In 1993 he moved to San Antonio, Texas, to help start a Mennonite congregation. His involvement at San Antonio led to his work at the denominational level. He served as director for both Hispanic Resource Ministries and the Anabaptist Biblical Institute. When MCUSA formed, he continued as a denominational minister. Gilberto retired at the end of 2014.

Gilberto enjoys carpentry, reading and spending time with his wife, children, and numerous grandchildren. Gilberto and his wife, Rosa, are the parents of four adult children, and currently reside in Guatemala.

Please register everyone who will be attending from your church. Feel free to make copies of this registration if you need more space. Thanks!
